

GOAL

A better future for football

GOAL

We certify that

Alexander Pilbeam

has completed

The Football Association
Child protection and best practice – Workshop

This 3 hour workshop is interactive and covers

- The reasons why sport and football need to address child protection
- Identifying and applying best practice principles to football
- Recognising signs of symptoms and forms of abuse
- Actions if there are concerns about the welfare of a young person
- People and organisations who can help
- The FA Child Protection Policy and Procedures
- An action plan for change
- Identifying feelings in relation to concerns, including abuse

08 August 2004 at Cobdown Sports Centre

Mike Rawding

Chairman, FA National
Child Protection Working Group

Tony Pickerin

Head of Education & Child Protection
The Football Association

FA Learning Safeguarding Children

Re-certification checksheets

TheFA.com/FAlearning

We certify that

Alexander Pilbeam

has completed these updates and been checked for knowledge of

- Best practice principles to safeguard children in football
- Signs, indicators and forms of abuse
- Actions if there are concerns about the welfare of a young person
- People and organisations who can help
- The FA Safeguarding Children Policy and Procedures
- Relevant government guidance and legislation

Brian Barwick
Chief Executive, The FA

Sue Law
Head of Equality and Child Protection
The FA

Date: Sep 14 2007

Certificate No: RC14/09/200712384449

Valid for 3 years from date shown